What we can say with certainty... and there is not a whole lot we can say with certainty, but this we can say with certainty: the truth, the real spiritual teaching, and therefore the real spiritual teacher, the true spiritual teacher, is really not more or less than a catalyst for a benevolent change. Yes?

That is what this provision is. It is a context for benevolent change. It is the very context itself. In other words; it is not really an object apart from the agency for change itself. It IS the agency for the change. It IS the context. It is Grace. It is a picture of Grace. Yes its the Same thing. A picture of Grace is Grace! It is not different! It is a reflection of Grace. It is the same thing. The picture or the reflection is the requirement for change. In other words; if you still need to perceive pictures, you will perceive Grace in the picture. That is how it works. Jesus says: This is all preparation for Grace because when you are living in a state of grace, you no longer need this. You no longer need anything; you do not need a teacher, you do not need a teaching, you are that.

So what we are doing here is incrementally preparing for the descent of Grace. But in that preparation you require a context. You require a context. But essentially what you do is you run from the context, and the way that you run from the context is denying it is there. So that is like a pretence. Everyone knows, everyone sees it is right there, but you keep moving your head, to avoid looking at it. To look at Grace is to look at God! That is my new t-shirt.. To look at Grace is to look at God. Yes!

What is your brother? A form of Grace! To look at your brother is to look at God. Jesus says all you need to do is recognize, in your brother, that God is with you. That is really all you are learning to do. All you need is the reflection that your brother is showing you, to know that God is with you._Why? because he is a reflection of this benevolent change.

Now, what is your function? Your function is to allow that change to occur. Your purpose is to allow that change to occur. Yes? In other words this is a course in allowance, in learning how to allow. You can call it forgiveness or healing, It really is simply just learning to allow things to be as they are, rather than how you would have them be. The answer is always self evident. It is not a whole lot of work. The answer to your questions is self evident, and it is always some form of Grace- The answer to the question is always some form of Grace!

The answer to all your questions is always a miracle! It is the only answer there is! There isn't another answer. The answer to your question is a miracle. In other words you need a miracle to correct the tendency to ask questions! Yes, or NO? It's just a tendency, just a tendency. The answer is always given, and the answer will always be;" Not this", which is what a miracle is. " I must be wrong! "

How do I know I am wrong? I am asking questions!!! So if I am asking questions, I must be wrong! Because when I am right there are no questions!
But if there are no questions there is no problem! And if there is no problem,.... There is no me!
OH Shit! No wonder I keep asking questions! I love you guys!, I love you guys!!!! You are starting to hear A Course In Miracles, it is not very difficult.

The descent of Grace, by the way is a very potent, powerful, and all encompassing event; we say the descent of Grace and you have a tendency to believe that because it is benevolent, it doesn't involve the transformation of your physical self. It is not true! It involves the transformation of your physical self, because your physical self is what asking questions is; until your physical self is transformed, you will continue to ask questions because you will have the apparatus with which to ask questions! Yes? Yes! I love you

This is why I like to get to the heart of the matter which is the physical resurrection because without the physical resurrection, you just move from one question to another, and you call it progress! Yes ,or NO? "But I am not asking as many questions " ..... or "the quality of my questions has changed. Look I am asking a real question! Here is a real question: WHO AM I?

That is an insane question. Asking who you are!
Everything knows the answer. What are you? You are that which asks questions!
How do you like it? Is it satisfying? OK. You can transcend that if you like. You are being offered the Grace, which is the agency for transcending all of such foolishness. OK? Are you OK? You are not too offended? Good. I love you. I am glad you are here.

Ultimately, the teaching of this benevolent agency will always be; Breath, breath and be happy. There is nothing that you need to do. You need do nothing. You only need to breath and be happy, you only know that God is with you!

Jesus will say in today's lesson: Grace is the simple recognition that God is. That's all; and in that all is accomplished already. Some of you are struggling with your physical being. I can help you with that, if you like. The way I can help you is by directing your attention towards, your non physical being. I don't know how else, there is no other way to do it. By directing your attention to your non physical being, your physical being aliens with your non physical being; and your physical being is realized as non physical. Now you missed that. It is called physical transformation; your physical being doesn't exist. It was in yesterday's lesson. The mind cannot create a physical being. It is not possible because there is not such thing. There is only the spiritual.

So what is this? It is a dream. It is only a sign of a mind asleep. Or a mind who has forgotten what it is. And that is why it is impossible. So, what are you in this human adventure? There is an adventure going on, you are a human idea, and that is precisely what you are, an idea. Call that a being if you like, but you are only an idea.

And that idea is being corrected or made whole or healed by the corrective agency which is Grace. And that Grace is with you making the correction right now. Now, it is going to take a shape or a form because you are insisting that it does. So it takes a shape of a mosquito. What is the mosquito?

The mosquito is the greatest form of Grace in the history of human kind! Grace shows up and you (flap, flap, flap) You put nets around yourself, notice that that is a transparency! I love you guys! Why is a mosquito a form of Grace? Well he is trying to tell you uuuuuum.... "this is not your home." Does anyone speaks mosquito? I speak mosquito. Yuuuuuum, OK!, I get it,! I hear you!..... I love you! In case you need a reminder, there is plenty of them here. Here is another one!.. I love you

I am just trying to help. Trying to help, make it easy for you. Your burden is light. Your burden is light because there is no world. You can do whatever you like, but in joy, at the very least enjoy what you are doing. And that is what we are offering in this place. This place is a form of Grace. It is a form of Grace! Everything is a form of Grace because all form is Grace but, what makes this form particularly valuable to you, is that this form of Grace is nothing else. Because it's been stabilized by those who are using this Grace to establish, what we call, a physical bridge. Can you hear it? I will offer this to you now as a frequency.

What is happening in this place? Well in this place the practice is to remain in the recognition that form and spirit are not separate. That there is only one thing and it is Grace. And so now, suddenly everything becomes infused with that Grace. So now everything is vibrating at the frequency of Grace, Of Love. You call it love in the transition. This is why you can walk in and feel it, you can feel it. It is tangible it is substantial. The feel of Grace has a particular vibratory frequency.

And this is how you know the truth. This is how you recognize the true teacher! What is the true teacher? A context! He is not a thing. He is not a voice even. He's a context, or He is a climate. YES? Yes ,or NO? Here is what The Old Man tried to say for 35 years; I am not a body! I am a context! I am not a body! I am not a physical being, I am a context, or a climate within, where your dreams become true!

That is what I am! And I am that! And not only that; as an idea I am that physically, because that physicalness is infused with that idea. Come in, come on in, enter in, look around, search every part of this physical being and all you will find is that Agency. You won't find anything else. In other words, there is no ego left. You can look at it that way. You need one who has transcended the ego. You need one; you can not do it on your own. If you are still associating with the ego, you need one, a picture a reflection which is the transcendence of that.

That is why you needed The Master Teacher. Why do you need the Master Teacher? Because He is the transcendence of that tendency to believe, there is something other than Grace. He is that, just as I am that. How am I that? I died! What you call the ego died. There was nothing left. All of the memories associated with time and space, died. Yes? Better that died, they were, reconciled with God. Because nothing dies. In other words, I saw in a single instant that I was wrong about everything. Death of the ego. What is the death of the ego, Ignacio? What is the death of the ego? Being wrong about everything! I am wrong about everything, is what the death of the ego is.

Who wants to wake up? Anyone want to wake up? I am wrong about everything! And that is going to be today's lesson. That is it! You are not teaching anything! I am wrong, God is right, I am wrong, God is right!, I am wrong, God is right, everything begins to changes, the frequency changes, the texture changes, your perception changes.....before you know it.... you are right! You are made right, by Grace. You can not do it on your own! You are made right by Grace! Jesus calls it: The corrective principle, the corrective agency.

We like to keep our morning sessions short. But I am only teaching me! So, I am going to teach all day long! No I am not! I am going to read today's lesson and we will finish. The important thing that I am offering, is that which makes me different, and what makes me different has only to do with the quality of my own experience. My experience was different from the experience of many who are using the Course as an enlightening vehicle because my experience was wholly physical, is wholly physical. When Grace descended, it descended through this physicalness, and activated a quality in me, that was dormant and that quality, ultimately, transformed this physical structure, in an event which was wholly physical. OK?

Now here we are going to read today's lesson:

169 BY GRACE I LIVE, BY GRACE I AM RELEASED

"Grace is an aspect of the Love of God which is most like the state prevailing in the unity of truth..."

Grace is an aspect of the Love of God. - The thing about Grace; it is helpful to understand, is that it is an activity of Love. It is an activity. In other words, it is performing a function. This is why you are asked to perform a function, because it aligns you with Grace, which is also performing a function. In other words; before the separation, the Holy Spirit wasn't necessary. That is what I just said. Can you hear me? Before the separation Grace was unnecessary. So Grace, when the separation occurred, became an aspect of Love, which is function. It is utilitarian! Can you hear it? It is used in order to heal the apparent fragmentation.

That is how it is being used right here, so it is an aspect of Love. It is listen...

"...the world's most lofty aspiration, for it leads beyond the world entirely..."

This is another way of saying that your destiny is not of this world, your destiny is Divine.

"Grace is past learning yet it is the goal of learning, for Grace cannot come, until the mind prepares itself for..." what? This is key word in Course of Miracles, "...for true acceptance".

What are you doing? You are preparing yourself. Yes? You are preparing your mind which is yourself, for true acceptance! Is that what the learning of this Course is? What are you doing here? You are changing your mind about yourself! What are you doing? You are learning to accept. Because you have to accept the truth of you because you have denied the truth of you. You are learning to perceive things differently. Yes? The training of your mind is to see things differently. You have been wrong until now and you are learning to accept the truth about yourself. You can't get there from here! You can not get there on you own. It is not possible. You can't get there from here, because you are already there, and this is what Grace reveals to you! Alright? You are mistaken, you are wrong about everything.

"...Grace becomes inevitable instantly, instantly, in those who have prepared a table where it can be gently laid and willingly received; an altar clean and holy for the gift.

Grace is acceptance of the Love of God within a world of seeming hate and fear. By Grace alone, only by Grace, the hatred and the fear are gone, for grace presents a state so opposite to everything the world contains, that those whose minds are lighted by the gift of grace can never believe that the world of fear is real..."

Did you hear it? That is what the whole transition is. You take a breath and hear this sentence and you will be fine.

"But I appear to be a body!" - Your perception is mistaken, your assumption is mistaken! Yes? It is impossible you are a body. Alright? And Grace will reveal that to you. Grace will reveal that to you through the physical translation of you body idea, to a form of Grace. That is what it is! Alright? Now what is your function? Your function as a body identity, what is it? To align with Grace, to align with this agency. Yes or No? physically! That is why you have to take a physical function. What am I doing? I am taking a physical function. Can you hear that I am taking a physical function? I have given this body to God. It is taking on a physical function which is in alignment with Grace. There is no other way out of here. You can't do it any other way. You cannot do it any other way!

You must align the mind and body, this is how it happened to me; you must align the body, I gave my body to God! Yes or No? You are waiting around for this miraculous occurrence and it is occurring all the time, but you are not seeing it because your body is not aligned with the agency . I keep saying it is a physical thing and you say: No I am going to avoid the body and transcend. You can't do it. It is not possible! This is the problem that I had in Wursterwitz. The problem that I have is there still! It is not going to happen unless the body is seen, recognized as a vehicle or an agency which is not other than the whole idea that is been given from outside of time.

This body and this book (ACIM) are the same thing. This very body is not different from this book. I am not going to argue with you! It is not possible to argue with you! It is not open to discussion. If you want to argue.. fuck you! Go off and argue and have fun. Knock yourself out, and let me how it worked out. I don't know where that is coming from! It is coming from the Old Man, if you want to know the truth..... I love you. Thank you.

Here we go..... look:

"...Grace is not learned..."

Grace is not learned! Grace is not learned. You can't learn it, you can't get there from here. You can not learn Grace. Grace is a gift, it is given.

"...The final step goes beyond all learning. Grace is not the goal of this course..." Grace is not the goal of this course, ...yet... , what is the goal of this course? To prepare for Grace. - "The goal of this course is to prepare for grace..."

What am I doing here? I am preparing you for the descent of Grace! When the descent of Grace comes, do you know what I do? I get out of the fucking way! That is what I do. I have nothing to do with that, I am just preparing you for that occurrence. When the descent of grace comes I get out of the way. Or at best, I say: breath and don't worry about it. That's what the old man did that with me. When the Descent of Grace occurred in me all He did was get out of the way, all he said was breath. He just assured me, this is exactly what it is suppose to occur, what all your preparation was for, just breath, just breath. Are you OK?

What does Jesus say about this book when the Descent of Grace comes? Lay it aside. It's done its job, lay it aside. Yes, or No? Come on, obviously you can not do that until you ready to. And don't fool yourself and say; I am done with this course, lay it aside and then go on with your business. That is not it. When the moment comes, you will know. I promise you! You will be perfectly aware, Why? you will feel it in you body and there will be no doubt. Oh shit! That is what happened to me. I closed my eyes and said: "Oh shit, this is it!" And I made a decision in that instant. I trained my mind to say YES! All I did was say. "Yes". And that was the submission. Are you OK? You got this? Good! Good for you.

"...We prepare for Grace in that an open mind can hear the Call to awaken. It is not shut tight against God's voice... Now listen, this is the whole teaching... It has become aware that there are things that it does not know..., Yes? Have you become aware of that? You have become aware that there are things that you do not know, pretty much all things, you pretty much know nothing.... It has become aware that there are things that it does not know and thus it is ready to accept a state completely different, from experience with which it is familiarly at home...Ok? Can you hear me?"

I am preparing you for an experience which is entirely unfamiliar to you, because, if the experience was be familiar, you would not be here. This is the place you come to, to be unfamiliar with yourself. That becomes familiar to you! It is familiar to you not to know who you are. That is crazy! Crazy! And yet it is familiar to you. Of course I don't know who I am, no one knows who they are. That is crazy! Do you see? Yes, or No? You are being offered an alternative to that. It is like letting the blind lead the blind. Everyone follows each other blindly to the grave, trying to throw themselves in. Everyone else is doing it! Death must be natural because everyone is doing it. It is crazy! Yes, or No?

You are being offered an alternative. And what that does look like? Listen...

"Oneness is simply the idea that God is. And in His Being, He encompasses all things. No mind holds anything but Him. We say "God is", and we cease to speak, for in that knowledge words become meaningless. There are no lips to speak of, and no part of mind sufficiently distinct to feel that it is aware of something which is not itself..."

Did you hear that? You are being prepared for that state....

"It is united with its Source. And like its Source, it merely is..."

"We cannot speak nor write nor even think of this at all..."

Stop trying, stop trying! " I wonder what enlightenment is. Enlightenment is ....." fill in the sentence and you will be mistaken.

Listen..

"...We can not speak of this. It comes to every mind when the total recognition that its will is God's has been completely received and given..."

Did you hear that? say to me: "God's will is done". OK, when that becomes whole, when it is completely given and received you will realize that you are not other than what God is. Why do you have to fulfill that function? Because you will need to give that idea away. That is the only idea that you are... Yes, or No? That is a physical experience. Because this is a physical idea, this physical vehicle that you are using, in order to teach this idea, to demonstrate this idea. And what is going to happen in the mean time as you begin to give this idea away? Miracles, miracles! Everywhere, all you will become aware of are miracles, because that is what you are looking for. And you will begin to see reflections.

What are you doing here in this room?" It is a miracle! It is a miracle, and not only that but it is self evident. It is been given you by Grace. Because I began to teach the idea, extending the idea, demonstrating the idea, God's will is done. And in that, all things are given me.

One more time; The only way to transcend your lack, or your idea of yourself, which is the same, is "God's will be done. Father, not my will, but yours. Father, I am here on your behalf. Father; finally: father, father". That's it. That is all this course is offering. "Father; Your will not mine. I don't know how to come to you but you know. If I get out of the way, You will show me. You will reveal it to me in an experience". Yes?

You are learning to receive. God's voice is an experience. It is not a voice. It is an experience. It is nice to be felt... God's voice is an experience. How do you know you are listening to God's voice? There is an experience and that experience, leaves no doubt. It is not open to discussion.

I hear this one all the time: "I asked the question and I am waiting for a response I am waiting to hear God's voice. I am not going to move until I hear the voice of God! I asked Him whether or not I should get a job, but He is not answering me. I still don't know!"

God's voice is an experience! In other words, you feel it, and there is the response. What is He saying? The only thing God ever says is : You need do nothing. He is not saying anything. You need do nothing. It is accomplished! ..... I love you, I love you!

I am trying to offer you the resolution, because you still have a profound tendency to believe that something is required of you, other than acceptance, and it is not true. Nothing is required. Everything is given you, it is given you! It is a gift. And it takes a form ultimately in this place, of what you call a happy dream. Sure why not? Still it is going to be a dream, but it is different in kind, it is different in quality, it is wholly happy! Alright? Still you need do nothing. It is a gift. Are you OK? I haven't insulted you too much ?

Alright, let's see...

"...It returns the mind,-listen- into the endless present, where past and future can not even be conceived. It lies beyond salvation; past all thought of time, past all thought of forgiveness, and the holy face of Christ. The Son of God has merely disappeared into his Father, as his Father in him.- Listen to this-. The world has never been at all..."

See, you are going back in time. Going back. Wait! the whole evolution of the human species. The old Man is with us, now.

This is the great destiny of the human being. We are going to evolve to some advanced condition, and so we are going to go out in space, into the same shit there as we have been doing ; we are going to kill one another, all the shit that we do here, we are going to do in an advanced evolutionary condition;. Star Trek. No that's not the way it works.

The only advance is going backwards. That is true advance. Every time there is a miracle, you go backwards. You think you go forward in time, but you go backwards, to the point where all of this begins and ends, and that is now!

What is the destiny of the Human condition? God

Where are you coming from? God

Where are you going? God

Where is the human condition? What human condition?

What evolutionary process? There are guys all around you, they speak of the revolutionary human destiny, thereby stretching it out as if the human being had an important roll to play. "Look at me, I am a human being and I am evolving. I used to do a lot of swinging from trees and now I can sit in lotus position" Come on, come on! God is, God is and this is absurd! Yes, or No, Yes or No? The missing link is a miracle, everyone knows that. Every time there is an evolutionary event, it is a miracle. Yes, or No? It is quantum shift!

I am going to finish this., because it is a nice day out. Alright..

"...Eternity remains a constant state. All learning is already in Your Mind, accomplished and complete. You recognize all that time holds, and give it to all minds that each one might determine, from a point where time has ended, when it is released to revelation and eternity.

We have repeated several times before that you make a journey that is already over. Oneness must be here. Whatever time the mind has set for revelation is entirely irrelevant to what is a constant state, forever as it always was, forever to remain as it is now. You are merely taking the part assigned to you long ago, and fully recognized as perfectly fulfilled by Him Who wrote salvation's script in the name of His Creator and in the name of His Son.

There is no need, too further clarify what no one in the world can understand. When revelation of your oneness comes, it will be known and fully understood. Now we have work to do, for those in time can speak of things beyond time. Those in time, can listen to words which explain that what is to come is past already..."

That is exactly what I am doing. All I am doing is telling you that what you are evolving to, you already are. And by doing so, now here is the key to how we are going to end it. The key is this: I am not just speaking the words. I am here as a demonstration that it is so. I come from the overness to remind you that it is over. I am not hoping that it is over along with you; "I hope it is over, I hope that what He is saying is true" No. I know that it is true! I am not confused. I come from above. I come from the light and I am that Grace that you are seeking. I am identified as that!

Thank you, I love you and that is all I am going to say! I love you guys. Namaste, and I am glad you are all here and that you are not going anywhere, for it is here you live. Gracias. Thank you guys, Namaste. Play them "Love will show the way".

Any one who wants to add anything? You are welcome to teach. Everyone is welcome to teach in this place. There is only one voice.

I've got you. Don't worry. I've got you. I was with you all night, in case you need a reminder . Anyone else has anything to add?

Any questions? I love you guys!!!! Thank you, thank you. Good, good, good. Breathe and be happy will you?

The pool is ready, if you want too swim. Today is a good day. It is all clean, we sucked up the bottom, we vacuumed, the dust. You won't be able to sink..

Namaste.
