

You are everywhere that there is determination to awaken

January 26, 2008

Mostly, I just want to offer you my assurance that it's very close!

This is as close as it gets!
This is as close as it gets!

I just wanted to say thank you, thank you, thank you... thank you for playing your part in this reconciliation, in this awakening..

If you listen carefully, if you become aware of the evidence that's all around you, you will recognize, you will see with perfect clarity, we have reached a place, indeed, where all are one. We have reached the frequency where the gathering is occurring.

The Advent of a Great Awakening!

There are no differences at this frequency!
There are no differences.....
Everyone is gathered here, with the single intention ... To remember Who We are!

Open your eyes, and as far as you can see, everywhere you look, there's evidence of the occurrence, yeah.... This is where it occurs....
There's no distance, there's no separation, there's no difference.
What's going on here, in this place, in this provision, is going on in all provisions everywhere that are dedicated to this transition, to this awakening.

In other words: You are everywhere!

You are everywhere where there is a determination to awaken... yeah, yeah...

It's a frequency, and it's singular, it's joined in purpose, united!

And that's where you find yourself.

Don't be fooled by the appearances. Don't be concerned that is happening somewhere else.

If it's happening somewhere else, you are there!!

If it's happening anywhere, you are there!!

I love you, guys.

Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you.

Thank you for this place! Thank you for joining me in this place!

And, thereby, making it available to everything and everyone!

Thank you. Everyone ok? Yes?... Good... Thank you...
