The space above your head extends to infinity; that space above your head extends to infinity!

When you start to get a sense of how it is that the mind functions, how it operates; when you glimpse the nature of God, of the reality of mind, of consciousness, of awareness, you see that it is unbounded and you realize that is only your attention to a particular idea, thought or reference which binds you to it. That's all. It is only your attention to a reference which binds you to it. That's all. This is what I would love to be able to offer you this weekend. I would like to introduce you to Jesus. Are you interested in such an event? O K: good!

Jesus is introducing Himself to you. Jesus is always introducing Himself. Yes? Yes. I am never absent in any circumstance. I am with you always! What I would like to offer you is an experience of a joining with that mind, yes, that frequency, which will remain with you in a form of a certainty. And we call that certainty the light. That certainty is what the light is. And once you have been introduced to that frequency, all doubts vanish. There is no doubt. Doubts become ridiculous. They become absurd.

So what I would like to do and I am going to do anyway, whether you like it or not, is to introduce you to that frequency, or better to introduce that frequency to you. I am going to offer you that frequency. That is what He is asking me to do. I don't do anything without instructions. Jesus is asking now to bridge the gap, to bridge that apparent gap between your awareness and His, and that is easy for me to do, because my awareness is His. I am no longer confused by what is going on here. I am totally aware, I am perfectly aware that Jesus is with me presently, and that is what makes me the savior of the World.

The moment I begin to express it I see that the mind divides. Maybe you can hear where I am coming from. The moment I drop in, I see that the mind immediately divides. What happens? It is questioning whether or not that's true. I just said I come to you from Jesus. I am wholly aware; "I brought Jesus with me", and immediately the mind splits. You either believe me or you don't. There is nothing that I can do about that. That is a decision that you are making. Now if you don't believe me, believe Jesus. What does Jesus say about that? "I am with you always!" He says it! Do you believe me?

What I am bringing to you now is the certainty that it is so. The certainty that Jesus is present! Jesus is here with you, and He is waiting to be introduced. We teach this in all sorts of ways: We leave a space vacant. We allow Him to enter. Essentially it will take a form of purification which is what I am trying to do with you. The mind needs purification because there is a lot of shit in there. There are a lot of meaningless ideas, that you believe have value. What are those ideas doing?

Let's take fasting for instance. What is that idea? Meaningless! it has no meaning at all. None, zero, but it has all the meaning that you give to it. So for you fasting is a means because you have given it that value. Of course! It could be anything, it could be the Catholic Church. It could be anything. Whatever meaning you give to it, it will have for you. It could be a relationship! In fact it will inevitably be a relationship. It is unavoidable because it will be an idea that you give value to, a thought that you give value to, that brings about a result.

Now what I am offering you is the wholeness of your mind. Your mind in whole and it is wholly integrated and if you believe that fasting will bring you closer to God, it will bring you closer to God. Of course! If you believe an aspirin will cure your headache it will cure your headache! Of course! It is just an agency, that's all it is and you are empowering it. What am I? I am an aspirin. I am just an aspirin? What is this? It's an aspirin. It's an idea. I am an idea in your mind that you are using in order to come closer to God. How do I know that? Because that is what I am!

We are going to heal the split, we are going to heal the doubt, to heal the uncertainty, if you stay with me I will draw you into an experience in which you will be wholly certain. All doubt will be removed and you will be able to carry that experience with you and no longer be concerned by what is arising. Is this what you are looking for? The promise of Jesus is that He is available to you. He is here with you. The only thing that you are overcoming or transcending is the doubt that it is so!

So the first question you may ask is "Where is He?" and the answer is He is every where! Where is he? He is in the guy sitting next to you. I am trying to join with you in what you call a Holy relationship. Where is he? You guys have a tendency to belittle your associations with one another. Don't do that! The guy next to you is offering you salvation. He is literally that! He is not other than that! He is a sign that Jesus is with you. He is the evidence that Jesus is with you. He is giving you the messages that Jesus is sending to you. He is delivering that, and He is doing that literally, with every word He says.

Now, how does Jesus teach it, what is He offering? Recognize who he is. That's what He says! What does he says about your brother? Pay no attention to what he is saying. He is not saying anything. Recognize who he is. Who is he? Jesus! You know, why is that idea so difficult to receive or accept? Well because it is the end of the world as you know it. If Jesus is present, your world is over. Your world is ended. That is what you are struggling against. That is why your mind is split. You are making a choice. It is either Jesus or me. Which is it? I promise you this, because on your way out, if you are going to do this with me tomorrow, I am going to ask you to replace yourself with Jesus. And that is a profound gesture that is called the ordeal of self transcendence.

It is like you vacate, and Jesus enters. That is how it works. And I mean this literally, I am trying to offer you the experience, I am giving you a preview or a hint of what is going to occur tomorrow, if you stay with me. You will vacate, Jesus will enter, and you will know yourself as not other than that. That is the way it works; The gesture that is required is letting go of your self identity. You have heard it said. Now I am trying to make it easy for you, because I am here as a facilitator, and I am bringing that identity to you, but it still is going to be up to you to receive it, to get out of the way, which is the same thing.

The first thing that I am going to ask you to do now is to admit to me; make an admission; "I am wrong about everything". It will not work unless you are ready to make that admission. I am wrong about everything! And I mean absolutely everything. All of your ideas are binding you to this relationship with yourself. This admission is the requirement. I am wrong about everything, I am wrong about this altogether! This is an illusion. This is a dream. You have to be willing to sit with me in this circle, and be wholly mistaken about everything. That is the only way another experience is going to be given you! It is the only way you will be in a disposition to receive another experience. Remember the experience is always now. Jesus is here with you. It is only a matter of learning how to receive. I am wrong about everything!!! That is the disposition that is required.

Now if you go on defending yourself you will never get this! Never. Who are you defending yourself against? Jesus! Who is talking to you right now? JESUS! Of course! Why are you defending yourself? "I am a little doubtful because it appears that it is someone other than Jesus" What do you think He looks like? What do you suppose He looks like when he shows up as a physical construct? I am as good a guy as any. But if you don't like me, you can choose anyone. That is not the game you are playing.

The game you are playing is that you won't allow it to be anyone! You are waiting for it to be absolutely unequivocally evident that it is Jesus. You are waiting for evidence which is beyond doubt. Alright! I can give you that, but I have to tell you this; that evidence is not here. If you want that evidence you have to join Jesus where He is. And that will mean vacating the premises, vacating the premises, leaving the space vacant. The premises are your associations with yourself. I am just trying to prepare a stage now for you.

If you are going to allow for the reconciliation, the healing or the remembrance that you are not other than what Jesus is, you are going to have to allow His story to unfold in you. This is Him now. The story of Jesus is your story, and you are going to have to allow that story to unfold in you, up to and including including the crucifixion and the resurrection.

Jesus is remembering that you are not other than what God is. In that remembrance, there is a transitional occurrence, a transitional event. You can call it a death episode, where you recognize that you are the cause of everything that you see. You are dreaming this and it is just a story going on in your mind. This is Jesus now: up to including the resurrection. It is a story going on in your mind.

What are you dealing with? You are dealing with thoughts. Thoughts in your own mind taking shape. There is a thought in my mind, and it is called a relationship, and it actually takes shape. It looks like Mary Magdalene, it looks like mother Mary. It looks like the apostles, it looks like His favorite apostle. It looks like all of those thoughts that are going on within the context of this dream. It is a story that He is telling. You are telling exactly the same story. Your story is not different from the story of Jesus. It is exactly the same story. I am trying to get you out of here using Jesus.

There is only one story of what you call the human condition. Or the coming into an embodiment, and recognizing your self as the causation, and then leaving here. That is what is happening to you right now. It is a story unfolding in your mind! How do I know it is working? Because I am with you! I know that you are telling that story. I don't need you to prove to me that you are telling the story. I know that you are telling the story.

Jesus is going to say: If I am with you, you are awake. Because I am here with you! That is all the evidence that I need. I don't need you to convince me that you are determined to awaken. I know you are determined or you wouldn't be here with me. I am just a reflection of your determination. That is all I am. I am serving as that. I want you to begin to feel me physically, because the resurrection is physical, or is the recognition that you can not be crucified. That is the resurrection.

It is called the passion; what is it called? The passion of the crucifixion! You need to be passionately involved in your story. Are you involved in your story or are you just waiting for something to happen? You can not transcend the story without being involved, without playing a part. You have to be here for a moment. We call this a function. You have a function to fulfill. It is the embodiment of your purpose. I am speaking as Jesus; Jesus will say: You are my hands my feet my voice. You are representing me in this world, as a story teller!

You are telling a story and your story is not different from mine, although it may appear to be. And all of the figures will begin to appear. You will have your own Magdalene, your own John, you will have your own disciples, it is singular, your own cross. It is a story that is universal. It is the story of forgetting and remembering. That is it. And all I am is a catalyst for remembering, I am reminding you. Your dream is exactly as valid as the dream of Jesus. Not different.

All of the elements that you need are contained within your dream just as they were contained within the dream of Jesus. They are all here. It is impossible that the resolution not be contained, with in the content of your dream. Now look around you. Who is here? Your savior, come to release you from the idea that you are separate. That is who is here with you!

Now it is up to you. You are making the choice. There is nothing I can do about that. Is this the time that you choose to remember? I can offer you the remembrance. It is the best I can do. It is going to be up to you to receive it. You are going to look around and you are going to see all of these thoughts reconciled in your mind. It is called falling in love! You will fall in love and you will realize that you were mistaken about everyone and everything. The guy that you thought was your enemy is your savior! Of course! Who is he? Jesus, who comes to save you! "But He appears to be in conflict with me" I know! That is why they crucified Jesus! You are not hearing me! He appears to be in conflict with me. Why? Because you are not ready to receive it! It is being offered now.

You will have to overcome all of your grievances. Once again I will say it to you. I AM WRONG ABOUT EVERYTHING. What is happening to me right now? I am being physically, converted, to the light that I brought with me when I entered, this story. I am the light of the world! This is the demonstration of Jesus. Now, you want to meet Him? I can show Him to you, but the gesture has to be yours!

Now I am spending this time, I am preparing you. Tomorrow there will be none of this. Tomorrow I will simply come in and demonstrate. This is the preparation. I am offering a framework now. A conceptual framework within which to allow this experience, to unfold! All you are taught to do in time, the only thing that I am teaching you to do in time and space is to learn to say YES. Now when you say yes I am not talking about an association in time and space. When you say yes, you are making a gesture towards reconciliation, towards that infinite space above your head, you are saying: Father I am ready, I am ready, this is the time. I am making that decision. Father this is the time that I choose to awaken, and you will provide me with the memory. The memory arises by Grace. In other words, for you, it is completely unfamiliar, because you have forgotten it.

The memory is a form of Grace. It's been given you. And it is going to look like all of your thoughts being reconcile in a single instant of forgiveness. All the thoughts reconciled. And that will be the story of Jesus, which is your story. All of the characters, all of the figures in your dream will join you. And what is your part? Let them in!

You have this tendency, your tendency is to say: Come on, Come on, bring it on, while at the same time, resisting or judging the occurrence. Like, for instance you will say: I am being attacked by my brothers". That is a LIE! It is impossible that you would be attacked by your brothers. It is im-fucking-possible. It is not possible. Who is attacking me? I am attacking myself! Period!

Now does it serve me to remind you that you are attacking yourself? How do I know! You have not heard me up until now. Sooner or later you will hear me. You are attacking yourself. You've got your hand around your own throat and you are squeezing. Stop it! Don't do that anymore. You are crucifying yourself! How many times do I have to say it before it is heard? I have an idea! 70 times 7!

You are telling the story of Jesus, He goes out there, this is sermon on the mount, he is out there and He begins to talk. No one is hearing a thing, but they are all gathering because something interesting is going on. He is coming from above, He is offering the resolution, He is aligning Himself with the Holy Spirit, He is completing His assignment. Father, look; I am completing my assignment, why isn't anyone hearing me? 70 times 7, keep on forgiving.

He comes like a thief in the night. You have to be in the practice of it. If you are not in the practice of it, it will never come. How is it going to come if you are not practicing it? If you are not applying the principles, if you are not teaching it? How is it going to come? It is not going to come, ever! All we are doing is teaching you to keep your wick trimmed.

We teach it as: keep your wick trimmed and your lamp filled. Keep your quad full of gas. Make sure there is gas in the quad, because you never know. He can come at any moment. I love you guys! Thank you. We are talking about a disposition. It is really not a big deal. You can call it prayer if you like. Like for instance: The car that you bought, when I look at it, is a form of prayer. It brings me tantric ecstasy to see you driving in that car, because when I look at it I see immediately, it is a form of prayer. A gesture towards the resolution! I just know it, it is self evident!

Or when I offer you a sandwich and you receive it. I see that as a form of prayer. You see it is a form of: I am seeking the resolution and I will take it in whatever form it is given. Jesus used to call it be Holy Eucharist. The body of Christ! Same idea. That is what I am doing right now. I am offering you the resolution, in a form that you are able to receive. Take this body and eat of it.

Jesus is telling a story. I am asking you now; take this body, to make a gesture in your mind, which is a form of prayer, take this body and eat it. In other words: Father, use this body on your behalf. Father I am here on your behalf. Use this vehicle and you will begin to speak. You will find yourself on a mountain top delivering a sermon. Of course no one is hearing you but that does not stop you, what do you care! I don't care; I am just serving God. –“ But others are going to crucify me”. I know. Others crucified me before you, so don't worry about it.

What does Jesus say? The world hated me before it hated you, so don't worry about it. It's only for your benefit. You are the one that is waking up. You are the one that is taking your part as Jesus did before you, and you need to do it now. You have a function, and it is a function that will take the shape, a hologram like this one. Of course! How else are you going to remember? In other words I am going to say it one more time. You can not transcend by avoidance it is not possible. You can only transcend, by accepting responsibility. What am I doing? I am demonstrating what it is to accept responsibility. I am doing it. This is not an easy job! If you want to try it, you are welcome to do it. I came in, and I sat down and I said: Father I am here on your behalf and I am not going to move, I am going to stay here, until this is reconciled.

Here is what I am juggling, listen. From your perspective, you believe that there are fifteen people in this room. From my perspective what I see are fifteen universes. There are fifteen universes in this room. They are not people. They are universes. And my part is to come in and align them for one instant, just one instant! That is what I am looking for. Where all of these universes, in a single instant are aligned with The Universe! The One Universe. Letting go of the littleness of their universe and accept the Universe that God is offering.

This is what I am dealing with, thoughts. You are bringing me thoughts. I have to deal with your thoughts. Each of you is bringing me an entire thought system, an entire universe. And I have to sit here and I have to like juggle a little bit, just for a single instant until there is a joining, and you recognize there is only one of us. There is only one self identity. We share the same source, is another way of saying it, and therefore we are not in conflict. That's it! That is the story of Jesus. That is what Jesus is offering you as a demonstration. Even though He was crucified and tormented, it had no effect because He was in a disposition where He was recognizing there is only one of us. There is only one thing going on.

What I am trying to relate to you is that that story when it was told by Jesus, and resolved in God, is your own story. That is all that I am trying to offer. So how are you going to get to meet Jesus? By allowing Him to dream you out of here. How did He do it? Well, He gathered 12 disciples, He struggled a bit in His associations with God, they crucified Him, and He resurrected. Are you ready to go through all that? That's an ordeal!

Remember we are only dealing with thoughts! There is nothing really happening to you. It's just a thought! These are just thoughts in your mind! You are responsible for these thoughts. This is your universe! You are coming in from outside of the frame, inventing an identity, but you brought Jesus with you when you came reminding you that you transcended that identity. Now He is demonstrating it as a story. Because it is too late! If you are here, you are already telling a story.

You can't just, miraculously, or mysteriously remember without seeing the reflection of that memory, because the two are simultaneous. You are going to see a reflection of your remembering, in other words you are going to see that your brother is you. That is how you get out. You can't get out any other way. Because cause and effect must come together in you! That is called physical resurrection. That is the story being resolved in you. You are working miracles now. You are a miracle worker, and you are doing a good job.

How do you work miracles? You are gathering up the thoughts in your mind and accepting responsibility for them. That is how you perform a miracle. I'll give you an example. I have a lot of examples. I am performing miracles all the time. Show me a miracle, walk on water! I am performing miracles all the time. I am raising the dead and, healing the sick. How am I doing that? By converting the thoughts in my own mind! That is what I am doing. I do it all the time. It is the work that I am doing right now. Performing miracles right now! Can you see them? Are you bearing witness? That is up to you. What does Jesus say? Your faith will save you.

It is up to you. It has nothing to do with me. The miracles are all around you. It's entirely up to you whether or not to see them. If you insist on retaining a grievance or an objective relationship, it will appear as nothing is happening and then you will blame me, or you will blame Jesus, or you will blame God. And you will be wholly justified within that condemnation. That is what you do all the time! Enough of that!

If you want to see, if you want to be the witness, see the miracle, you will have to be willing to let go of the grievances, which means once again, you must admit: I am wrong about everything. You can't get away! about absolutely EVERYTHING. Up to and including, believing that you need to sit here and listen to me. You are wrong about that. My friends, you are wrong about that. You don't need to do anything! I am just a voice crying out in the wilderness, hoping to find someone out there who is ready to hear and come on home.

Now what I would see you do: I will see you turn your face toward the light. I will watch you do it. That is all it is. I am doing it all the time. Even though you are in the depths, in the darkness associated with your identity in time, you get a flash and you turn towards the light. I watch you do it. That's all I need. I need that instant. That is the certainty that you are seeking. I am trying to get you for one instant to turn toward the light.

Now you are beginning to do it, but you have a tendency to turn, and then turn away. In other words: To get a glimpse of the light, without wholly identifying with it. You get a glimpse, you get a taste of it, you join with it for an instant, and then you turn away. You are afraid to accept it as your identity.

You are the light of this world. And when you accept that as your identity, your world will be lit with miracles. You will be enlightened. That is what I am offering you as a demonstration. I am offering you that. I am offering you what we call a happy transition. A transition filled with gratitude, and joy, and sharing, and relationship, and companionship. That is what this place is!

Now if you are unable to see that, it is only because you prefer to see your grievance. Are you OK that you are responsible for this, and that you are making a decision? If someone else is responsible, there is no hope for you. If God is responsible for this, you are in trouble. In deep shit! If Jesus is responsible for this you are in deep shit. If I am responsible for this, you are in deep shit.

Say to me: I am responsible for what I see. I don't want to hear you profess that to me, and then not share that with everyone. I am done with that! If you are going to say that, say it to everyone! What you do to the least of me is what you are doing into me. Jesus is coming to take you home, reminding you that He has accepted the atonement for Himself, and knows that everyone is Him! That is what the atonement means. And He is offering the same experience to you. How are you going to join Him if you are attempting to be separate from your brother, who is a thought in your own mind! Are you going to practice this with me? Do you really want to leave tomorrow?

Your function, your responsibility is to teach this for 24 hours. Can you do it? Can you teach this for 24 hours? Can you do it? Demonstrate it. Only this! Watch your mind, because the moment you walk out the door, you are going to begin to demonstrate another thought system. You are going to listen to the voice of the ego, and you are going to begin to argue, and disassociate from the thoughts in your own mind. Can I offer that from my perspective? That is called dementia. It is madness. You see?

Go into an insane asylum, what do you see? Minds arguing with themselves! What do you see within the context of the human condition? Minds arguing with themselves! You are crazy! You are crazy because your mind is split. I don't know how to help you, I don't know how to help you if you can not accept this fundamental premise; I am crazy, I am crazy because I am unhappy. That is all you need to hear.

I am going to let Jesus speak a little bit now. This is what He asked me to show you. This is from chapter 7, section number 6. This is Jesus speaking to you now.

The Reality of the Kingdom.

Healing and changelessness of Mind

This is Jesus now: Are you ready? Are you ready to join with Jesus now? Accept it!

You can not forget the Father, because I am with you and I can not forget Him.

I am offering direct lineage from outside of time through me. Jesus is reminding you that you are not separated from the Father because we are not separated from one another.

...To forget me, is to forget yourself and Him Who created you.

How are you going to remember Jesus?, How are you going to leave with me tomorrow? Here is how! Jesus is going to instruct you. You can not argue with these instructions. You can argue with one another, you are ready to do that, but you can not argue with the instructions, they are very clear. Listen to the instructions from Jesus!

..Our brothers are forgetful. That is why they need your remembrance of me and of Him Who created me. Through this remembrance, you can change their minds about themselves, as I can change yours. Your mind is so powerful a light that you can look into their minds and enlighten them.

That is what you are being asked to do. That is your function! How are you going to do that? By aligning your mind with the mind of Jesus! That is what you doing right now with me. Call this the lineage.

.... I want to share my mind with you, because we are of one Mind, and that Mind is ours! See only this Mind everywhere, because only this is everywhere and in everything. It is everything because it encompasses all things within itself. Blessed are you who perceive only this, because you perceive only what is true.

Come therefore into me, and learn of the truth in you. The mind that we share is shared with all of our brothers and as we see them truly, they will be healed.

That is all. You are not asked to do anything, but see them truly, as you see them truly, that is what I am doing with you, they will be healed. What am I looking when I look at you? The mind of Jesus! Same mind. There is only one mind. What are you looking at when you look at her? You have a tendency, to justify the body identity even though the resolution is been offered you! "I can't see past the body"! No what you are saying is ; " I will not, I choose not to see past my own grievance". That is what you are saying. When you are saying. " I can't see the mind of Jesus, I just see a body." That is not true. That is a lie.

What are you saying? What you are saying to me is : "I will not see past my own grievances, I am choosing to see a body, because that body identifies and justifies my body identity." That is what you are doing. Now you are being offered a solution. You have been offered an alternative! I am that alternative! I am not just speaking of it. I am bringing to you that alternative. I am the mind of Jesus. I am not other than the mind of Jesus. He is right here, offering you the same mind. What do you need to do? Receive it. But in order to receive it, you have to see it every where, you have to see that mind in everything. That is what Jesus just said: It is a function or an assignment you have been given.

Now, I want you to do that for twelve hours. I just reduced your sentence: Twelve hours! Can you do it for twelve hours? If you can do it for twelve hours you will resurrect with me tomorrow. I see only the light in you. I see only the light in you. Now, that is not just an empty mantra, It is the truth. I see only the light in you, or at least is a demonstration of your willingness to see only the light in you. The rest is given you!

Do you want to see the light in me? It is going to be an event or an experience that transcends your conditional identity. What is it going to look like? Everything! It is going to be like anything. It could look like anything! It could look like you, your body being thrown about the room. In all sorts of postures, that we did not know were possible. You could end up with your feet behind you neck. Who knows! What do we call this? Yoga! Kundalini Yoga. Who knows! Why are you practicing these things? Your body is being subjected to the light, and anything is liable to happen.

I would be talking to the Old Man, and I hung up the phone and my leg would be behind my head. I had no idea how it got there, and I had no idea how to get rid of it, how to remove it. Because I did not put it there myself! It got there miraculously. I've had this experiences where I would wake up and go: How did this happen? I am just offering you this to you. I have no idea what it is going to look like. I learned all of my yoga spontaneously. I did not practice anything. It just happened to me! I learned how to breath, a learned the postures... my instructor was the Holy Spirit. I did not have a human instructor. Everything I learned about breathing I learned from God. You don't have to read in a book, that's what I trying to offer you.

When you expose yourself to the energy here , hopefully, is what is going to happen. I am going to walk into the room and begin to release energy. That is what I am going to do. That is what I am doing now, but I am doing it in a particular formulation. Tomorrow it will not be conceptually in any way. It will be vibrational. I will begin to do that and you, will be faced with a choice, you will either say: "I wish He will start teaching, because talking is what I understand", or you will say: "Wow, thank you for offering me an alternative, an experience." The requirement will be to be in an opened disposition.

I love you guys! That's pretty much the only introduction that I had in mind. What you need to remember is that Jesus is present, and if you are not seeing Him, is because you are absent. For no other reason! Did you hear the instruction that Jesus gave to you? It is very plain, very clear! He said: Show a little willingness, to see past the body identity. That's it! And in that it will be revealed. It will be given. It is another way to say, before you open your MOUTH; "I am wrong about everything." Take a breath, and now speak. Don't speak. Don't say A WORD, before you admit that you are wrong about everything.

In other words; your opinions are absolutely meaningless. They have no value at all! You are wrong about everything! If you are right, there is a world, my friend, and you are fucked! If you are right, you are fucked! That is my new t-shirt. "If I am right, I am fucked." Come on, I am trying to offer you an alternative! You see, the alternative that I am offering you is different. That is how Jesus teaches it: The way is not difficult, but it is different. It is different. It is not what you are used to. What you are used to, is bidding you to your way! That is all. Now, what I am trying to offer you is an alternative, something that is different. Now, what is your job? To open up your mind to receive it!

Once again I am this to you; the space above your head extends to infinity without interruptions. I am just trying to get you outside of your body. That's all! Once outside of your body you can make a decision about whether or not you want to associate with the body or not. Now you believe you have no choice. Now you believe you must associate with the body, because you are associating with the body. It is not true. You are making a choice to associate with the body, I am just trying to get you in a position where you can see that you are making that choice and you can choose again. You can make another choice along with me. You can associate with Jesus, or with the light, or with me outside of time.

I love you and I really want you to leave with me, and I want you to remember that we left together, so that when you return, we can enjoy each other's company, knowing that we are not here. That is what this place is about. That is what I offer in this place, since I came back. I offered a place where we could be happy together enjoying one's another company, because we are wholly aware that we are not here. That we have already transcended this! That we are here for an instant to offer the certainty of our transcendence to all the world.

Here, Let me teach it this way; I am transcending consciousness. I am that. I am transcending consciousness. That is why you can't establish yourself with me. When you bring a thought to me, I transcend it. I can't help myself. That is what I am. I am transcending consciousness. Can you hear it that way? You bring a thought to me, and immediately I transcend it. In other words; I accept responsibility for it, and it is whole in my mind.

So when you say I am going to buy a four by four, that is a whole idea in my mind. Whole! It is called transcending conciseness. I don't judge it, wondering if it is ok, or make decisions, or comparisons. The thought is already transcended. I am going to India. Yes. That is a whole thought in my mind. I have already transcended it. In other words, that thought has already come whole in my mind, so there is no need to enact it. You can enact if you want to, but it is already whole. I am trying to offer you a happy dream where all your thoughts are reconciled, and you are therefore happy.

You don't need to enact in time. You are happy inherently because you recognize that your thoughts are already reconciled. They are already whole, but you have to practice with me. You have to look at that and say: That thought is whole in my mind. It is not what I think it is, it is not rendered partial by my judgment, it is not reduced by my judgment; it is whole.

When you show up, I fall in love. You are a whole thought in my mind. When you come here, I fall in love. I can see you, I can look and see where you are going. Where are you going? Home! Not only that, but from my perspective I can see your time is short, because you have made an agreement with me to fulfill the function given you by God, by Jesus yes, by me. By you! Who is giving you the instructions? You are! You are given yourself the instructions from outside. This is what you see. This is what, hopefully, I'll be able to show you tomorrow. That you are determining the outcome! Not only that, but you have already determined it. And everything that you see now, is only evidence of that predetermination. You are pre determined to be Divine. The Human destiny is predetermined! You have no choice. You will be God. You will be Divine.

This is the conceptual framework I am offering you; You are responsible for this. It is your dream, your creation, and you are determining the outcome. Now, when you are ready, and you make a decision; "This is the time that I choose to awaken", you will remember, that you have already awakened! That is what awakening is. It is a memory of what has already occurred. Teach it as a story. The story of Jesus, and It is your story, and it is going on right now. These are pictures of that reconciliation. Of that healing! All around you are the pictures, or reflections of your intention to awaken!

You are very fortunate, very fortunate, because you are in this company. You have to be very careful in this place, careful about how you apply your mind to what is going on, because you are in the company of saints, I promise you, you are in the company of Saints. These are the Angels that God has sent you to light your way. These are Holy Ones., who are given you, I know who you are. I know perfectly well who you are. You are a Holy One, given me, in order that I may complete my assignment. I am not fooled by what is going on.

And my function is to give you back to God. That's where you came from. You came from God for me! That is why you showed up! You came from God for me. For my benefit! Why do you think I am so happy when you show up? I am so glad to see you, because you came from God, and you came for me! Of course! I am showing you that there is only one of us. We are swapping heads now, I am doing that.

That is pretty much all I have to offer in a way of introduction, unless you have something else to say. You can feel that it is getting easier for you. I want it to be so easy that it is a steady state. That it is a consistent practice. In other words; I know, I recognize that your conversions can be immediate if you allow them to be. You can just look at one another and laugh. I want it to get to the point where we look at one another and laugh. Because, you see the resolution immediately! You don't need to go to the ordeal of converting old ideas. It takes too long. You are going to leave here with me.

We are going to leave together and you are going to do it through forgiveness. The only way to transcend this place is through love. There is no other way. You can not transcend it by denying it; you can not transcend it by avoiding it. You can only transcend it by loving it. That's why forgiveness is so important.

I don't know how to offer it. I have given you a lot. You may want to go listen to the tape. I've given you everything in order to leave here with me. Much of what you have heard, you will hear later. There is much you will understand later. That is how Jesus teaches it. But you will understand it. It is inevitable! You will hear that you have left here.

At the very least you are no longer seeking to justify your grievances. At the very least you are no longer using one another in order to justify your separation from God. You have come that far with me. You are in a good disposition. I can find you and I can offer you the way out. That is what I will be doing tomorrow. I won't be doing any of this. I will be looking for you in conciseness and I will be showing you the way out. In other words, I will be enlightening your mind just as Jesus has instructed me to do. Jesus says: My mind is so powerful that I can enlighten yours. I know it is true! That is what I am going to do for you, and what I am doing right now. We are going to allow your mind....

..Let your mind shine with mine upon their minds and by our gratitude to them make them aware the light in them. This light will shine back upon you and on the entire Sonship, because this is your proper gift to God. He will accept it and give it to the Sonship, because it is acceptable to Him and therefore to His Sons. This is true communion with the Holy Spirit. Who sees the altar of God in everyone, and by bringing this to your appreciation to call upon you to love God and His creation, you can appreciate the Sonship only as one. This is part of the law of creation and therefore governs all thought.

You can appreciate the Sonship only as one.

This is an introduction. Again I am going to introduce Jesus. The reason that Jesus can appreciate the Sonship is because He sees it as one. On accepting the atonement for yourself, that is the disposition I am offering you. Can I offer this to you? There is only one self doing that. Only one self sees the Sonship as one. That is you. I am trying to offer you that disposition, you know, of that way of seeing. It is not other than the way that Jesus sees. One more time! It is not the form it is the frequency that we are speaking of. Jesus is a frequency, it is a way of seeing or a way of being. And that way is unified, and sees the Sonship as one. Just breath, breath and be happy! Enjoy the space. Enjoy the light, enjoy the love.

Thank you!

Namaste
