

The Transitional Identity is an Embodiment of the Light

September 14, 2008

The transitional identity is an embodiment of the Light. Did you hear that? If you heard that, raise your hands. That's everything that I'm offering. It's called mastery. You want to master your dreams? This is how you master your dreams. You master the dreams by embodying the Light. That makes you a transitional identity.

That transitional identity is what we call Holy Spirit. It's a context. It's the Light itself as a context wherein which the dream is enlightened. It's another way of saying, you are the Light of the world. As a transitional identity, you are the Light of the world – and you are that physically. You are that as an embodiment. Your body itself is radiating Light – is generating Light. This is how you remember who you are. How you going to remember who you are, except by demonstrating it and the only way to demonstrate it is to embody it. That's everything that I'm offering you.

Michael, can you hear me? This is your teaching and I'm giving it back to you in the purity of this context. And, in the purity of this context, you rely on God, rely on the Light, you rely on Love to allow that to animate your conditional reference, your dream, until you discover, you realise you are none other than what that is – you are that very Light itself.

But first there's the necessity to embody it which is what we call the physical resurrection. It is the disposition which is open – the female disposition where you simply open to receive this descending force, as grace, until you are the embodiment of it – until you are not separate from it. Until you see that this form is only a form of that grace – and then you become that.

This is, by the way, how your dream is transformed. Your dream is not other than your body identity. Are you mature enough to hear me? Your dream and the body are the same thing. Your dream, the world, is just as much an illusion as is your body. Absolutely. Can you hear me? Now, in order for that illusion to be corrected, it must be transformed. And it's transformed by grace. So, the gesture is to open to this descending force. Then as you open to it, there will be an impulse to extend that – to give it away another words. That's how you turn yourself inside out.

How you doing with me? You doing OK? I'm pretty good - I'm a good teacher. You're not going to find a fucking better teacher. I don't particularly like to teach. I prefer to be. here I am, here it is – no words are necessary. You are that along with me. Your body is not different from my body. Can you hear me? There's no such thing as a world of separate bodies. You have risen because I have risen. You have been transformed because I have been transformed.

Take a breath now – you are farther along than you know. You've come so fucking far that you don't know where you are. Say to me, I have no idea where I am. Now, you're talking. You have no idea where you are – you think you do but you're wrong. Every time you think you know where you are, you're mistaken. Why? Because you're not there. Where are you? Everywhere!

I'm in Uruguay, in Colombia right now. I'm everywhere. I'm not a form – I'm a frequency of transition. And if this body is anything, it's an embodiment of that frequency.

That's you now in your new formulation. You've been given a new vehicle – by God. That vehicle will serve – serve God – as all vehicles do. Your body vehicle is not other than the vehicle of A Course In Miracles – it's the same thing. My body is A Course In Miracles. Who can hear me? My body is A Course in Miracles. I walk down the street and I'm transforming everything as a body identity. I have become this (the Course) by associating with this. Are you ready to graduate with me?

Maybe you need to read it five more times. Are you done? Are you finished reading it? Are you ready to demonstrate it? This is up to you – you are making the decision. One more time, say to me, the transitional identity is an embodiment of the Light. Jesus says you need to withdraw your attention from your physical-ness, from your formulation and place it somewhere else.

Where you going to place it? In the Light. How does Jesus teach this in the New Testament? This is from the Birthplace of Dreams – I wish I had it with me, I'd read it for you. If you fix your eye on the Light, your body will be filled with Light. I teach it this way: I see only the Light in you. I don't see anything else. I'm overlooking everything else. I don't care about anything else – what you are doing in there? What difference does it make? I see only the Truth.

Now, you wanna join me? Turn to the guy next to you and say I see only the Light in you. Right here, right now. It doesn't matter where you are. That's all it takes. I love you so much. Thank you. Say to me, I'm a whole thought in the mind of God – exactly right. That makes you the same thing – of course. You're in my mind and I'm in God's mind. That's how it works. That's why it's impossible to judge. I know who you are – you're no different from me. I'm a thought in the mind of God.

Everywhere I look, I see thoughts in the mind of God. God is in everything I see because God is in my mind – because God is the mind with which I think. It's impossible to judge. When you disappear, only Love remains. See if you can hear, those of you who are afraid of losing your self-concept. When you disappear, only Love is left. That's why there's nothing to be afraid of. The more you disappear, the more Love there is, Michael.

If you look at yourself as an objection to Love you will understand what I'm speaking of. What am I as a body identity? An objection to love. I'm sitting right here – I'm objecting to Love. I'm not going to do that anymore. I want to see what's really here. The way to see what's really here, is to be what's really here. When you are what's really here, you will see only that. This is the transitional idea – I'm an embodiment of the Love, and I have no concern what that looks like. I don't care – it looks like everything. I'm an embodiment of Love. Anything that arises is arising in Love. We are in love with each other. Say, I'm in love with you. Are you really? You have no choice my friend – you're not doing anyone any favours by being in love with them- you have no choice – it's where you abide

Even as a body idea, you are in love. You have no choice. It's the context of everything. It's the Source of us. I'm just teaching you to love indiscriminately – love is indiscriminate. Say to me, "Love makes no comparisons". That should make you very happy, but you keep on searching for a particular conditional reference which is going to better serve you. That search is what your problem is. There is no better reference. This is the reference that has been given you. Why won't you use this one?

This is the one that has been given you as a reflection of your intention to let love in – this is what it looks like – it looks exactly like this. I love you – thank you for showing up. I really needed you here with me in order to remember who I am. As you remember, I remember. This is Jesus: I am renewed each time a brother elects to join me.

Why are we so excited Cristina when a new brother shows up? We can barely contain ourselves – it's another opportunity to give what we've been given. When you become part of the circle, you can barely contain yourself when a new guy shows up, because you know there are no accidents. You know he's been sent to you and you can barely wait to serve him. Why? You're here. I'm here to serve him. I'm here in His Name. I'm not here for myself. I'm here to receive all of those that are sent to me by Him. T his is Gods plan for salvation. Guys, listen to me carefully – you've already been saved. You've no need to be saved – you've already been saved. How do you remember? By saving. When you save others, you know that you've been saved. What do you think I'm doing? I've been demonstrating this from the very beginning. I come in, the first thing I do is save because I've been saved. In order to remember, give it away.

Take a breathe and enjoy the reflections you are receiving. The evidence is all around you. Its everywhere you look. You just need to learn to depend on that and no longer depend on yourself. Of yourself, you can do nothing because you're not by yourself. That is what is revealed to you. Your brother is you. There's only one of us. I'm doing the best that I can. I know its not easy because there's resistance. Why is there resistance to this message? Because the world is the resistance to this message. Don't be fooled by this. The world is the resistance to this message. Don't let that affect you. Learn to overlook that. Learn to see it as a call for love. That's all that is going on.

It appears like crucifixion and all the shit associated with human consciousness. No! Everyone is asking for the solution. It's the only thing to do here. The moment you enter in here, you ask for the solution. This is impossible – this situation is impossible. Come on, the Old Man is here with you. You're in an impossible situation. Say to me, I'm in an impossible situation – absolutely, I need help. I'm fucked!

Say to me, "I just got here". OK, I'm not going to invent any reasons to be here. I'm going to allow God to determine the outcome. I place the future in the hands of God. Or better, I will step back and let him lead the way. That's today's lesson. Who wants to read it? Michael, you want to read in English? On behalf of Jesus, he has asked me to read this lesson. He assures me that this is what you need to hear. And no-one in his right mind says "no" to Jesus. Listen to this: I will step back and let Him lead the way.

Theres so much Light, you don't know what to do. That's OK. Whatever you will do will be OK. This much Light cannot be contained for very long. Its like trying to fit an ocean in a thimble.

Bravo! You hear it! I told you, you know everything. You already know it. You're living it – you are that. You know what I saw when I first came back from the other side. I walked out the door and they handed me A Course In Miracles on the way down. As I opened it and looked at it, I realised that this was me. This is what I am. I'm not different from this. this is what you're learning. Go ahead, read the lesson: (Lilian reads in Spanish)

There is a way of living in the world that is not here, although it seems to be. You do not change appearance, though you smile more frequently. Your forehead is serene; your eyes are quiet. And the ones who walk the world as you do recognize their own. Yet those who have not yet perceived the way will recognize you also, and believe that you are like them as you were before.

Is this true? You recognise your own – you know them immediately. You know those at the same frequency as you. You can see it because you are looking right at one another. Its nothing to do with the body at all

The world is an illusion. Those who choose to come to it are seeking for a place where they can be illusions, and avoid their own Reality. Yet when they find their own Reality is even here, then they step back and let It lead the way. (Josh: that's everything) What other choice is really theirs to make? To let illusion walk ahead of truth is madness, but to let illusion sink behind the truth, and let the truth stand forth as what it is, is merely sanity.

Here we are together. We're gonna step back and let Him lead the way

This is the simple choice we make today. The mad illusion will remain awhile in evidence, for those to look upon who chose to come, and have not yet rejoiced to find they were mistaken in the choice. They cannot learn directly from the truth, because they have denied that it is so. And so they need a teacher who perceives their madness, but who still can look beyond illusion to the simple truth in them.

That's beautiful. Is this what you asked for? OK, you've been given the solution – that's what you've been given. You've been given the answer. There is One with you who knows the way and that One is in you

If truth demanded they give up the world, it would appear to them as if it asked the sacrifice of something that is real. Many have chosen to renounce the world while still believing its reality, and they have suffered from a sense of loss and have not been released accordingly. Others have chosen nothing but the world, and they have suffered from a sense of loss still deeper, which they did not understand.

Between these paths there is another road that leads away from loss of every kind, for sacrifice and deprivation both are quickly left behind. This is the way appointed for you now. You walk this path as others walk, nor do you seem to be distinct from them although you are indeed. Thus can you serve them while you serve yourself, and set their footsteps on the way which God has opened up to you, and them through you.

Illusion still appears to cling to you that you may reach them. Yet it has stepped back, and it is not illusion that they hear you speak of, nor illusion which you bring their eyes to look on and their minds to grasp. Now can the truth, which walks ahead of you, speak to them through illusion, for the road leads past illusion now, while on the way you call to them, that they may follow you.

All roads will lead to this one in the end. For sacrifice and deprivation are paths which lead nowhere, choices for defeat, and aims which will remain impossible. All this steps back as truth comes forth in you to lead your brothers from the ways of death, and set them on the way to happiness. Their suffering is but illusion. Yet they need a guide to lead them out of it, for they mistake illusion for the truth.

Such is salvation's call, and nothing more. It asks that you accept the truth, and let it go before you, lighting up the path of ransom from illusion. It is not a ransom with a price. There is no cost, but only gain. Illusion can but seem to hold in chains the holy Son of God. It is but from illusions he is saved. As they step back he finds himself again.

Walk safely now yet carefully, because this path is new to you. And you may find that you are tempted still to walk ahead of truth, and let illusions be your guide. Your holy brothers have been given you to follow in your footsteps as you walk with certainty of purpose to the truth. It goes before you now, that they may see something with which they can identify; something they understand to lead the way.

Guys, this is your mission now – your ministry. Will you do this with me? Will you help me with this?

Yet at the journey's ending there will be no gap, no distance between truth and you. And all illusions walking in the way you travelled will be gone from you as well, with nothing left to keep the truth apart from God's completion, holy as Himself. Step back in faith, and let truth lead the way. You know not where you go, but One Who knows goes with you. Let Him lead you with the rest.

When dreams are over, time has closed the door on all the things that pass and miracles are purposeless, the holy Son of God will make no journeys. There will be no wish to be illusion rather than the truth. And we step forth toward this, as we progress along the way that truth points out to us. This is our final journey, which we make for everyone. We must not lose our way. For as truth goes before us so it goes before our brothers, who will follow us.

We walk to God. Pause and reflect on this. Could any way be holier, or more deserving of your effort, of your love, and of your full intent? What way could give you more than everything, or offer less and still content the holy Son of God? We walk to God. The truth that walks before us now is One with Him, and leads us to where He has always been. What way but this could be a path that you would choose instead?

Your feet are safely set upon the road which leads the world to God. Look not to ways that seem to lead you elsewhere. Dreams are not a worthy guide for you who are God's Son. Forget not He has placed His Hand in yours, and given you your brothers in His Trust that you are worthy of His Trust in you. He cannot be deceived. His Trust has made your pathway certain and your goal secure. You will not fail your brothers nor your Self.

And now He asks but that you think of Him a while each day, that He may speak to you and tell you of His Love, reminding you how great His Trust; how limitless His Love. In your name and His own, which are the same, we practice gladly with this thought today:

“I will step back and let Him lead the way, For I would walk along the road to Him.”

Gustavo: it's the first time I heard that lesson. ???

God is trusting you. ??? Thank you. I love you. Take this with you now. This lesson is all you need. Demonstrate. (someone speaks) Ask and it is given.

Daryl: Father, thank you for the gifts I see. Thank you.

(several guys speak)

Salvation must reverse the mad belief in separate thoughts and separate bodies which live separate lives and go their separate ways. One function shared by separate minds unites them in one purpose, for each one of them is equally essential to them all.

Its just a demonstration – an experiment. A Course in Miracles works. All we did was come together and do A Course In Miracles. Obviously there is all the difference between talking about it and demonstrating. It's just matured into an active demonstration – this is this provision. It's an open door now and it will never be closed again. Guys, this portal is open – wide open. This provision worked and it worked for all time. Can you hear me? It did not fail – it worked. It's a stairway to heaven. It's a bridge – just as we said from the outset. We wanted to establish a bridge – that's what occurred. It's rooted in heaven but it extends to earth. Thank you for being part of this experiment.

One last idea – it's the idea we began with: transitional identity is an embodiment of the Light. That's the bridge. I love you guys. Thank you. Namaste. We're together and it's working. I step back and let Him lead the way. Love will show the way. Thanks guys. I'm right here
