

The immediate response to “I am the Cause of this” is “Father”

February 10, 2008

You're demonstrating an intention to remember God. That's a miracle. That's a miracle. A miracle is that we are one. A miracle is that we are one in person in this place. You see how we are translating the world into reality. We translate the world to reality by seeing it in Light. By seeing it in Love, and that's what's happening. I love you.

Thank you for playing your part in this. Thank you. Thank you. You just learn to let love in. The mind training of A Course in Miracles is designed to train your mind to let love in. And that brings us to today's lesson. How is it that you've let love in? That's the practice. How is it that you've let love in? By letting your brother in. Letting him in, do you see? Allowing the defences to dissolve. Your bubble is bursting.

What's the method I'm being told to give you? Your bubble is bursting. I've no idea what that means. I love you guys. Think of one, anyone and let him in. Let him in through your open heart – is that how he enters? The heart is open. The heart is open. Let him in. We're practising together now. We're letting you in.

Did you see that? Did you see what just happened? The practise is to let him in. The heart is open and she enters in. "But she walked in through the door." There is no door. Come on!, we're talking about a frequency. What room did she just walk into? She walked into the upper frequency – the upper room. It's not a location. It's a frequency. The frequency of Love.

I've been teaching this all along, and you need to be shown a different way of being and that way is Love. You love everywhere and the fear dissolves. The past dissolves. What's present? Love. If you let one brother in, you let all brothers in. You and I are not separate – these are also included. Do you understand?

Today's lesson – I trust my brothers who are one with me. That's all you needed to learn here. It's the only lesson you needed to learn – singular self-identity. Holy Spirit. I am Holy Spirit. Say it to me. Yes, its true.

These are just adjustments. We are lining up your dream. There's nothing to be afraid of. The matrix will be adjusted. Let it change. A little more like heaven in its ways is how Jesus talks about it. Your dream is being aligned to the will of God. And what is God's will for you? Perfect happiness. What a coincidence. That's why the final dream is happy.

You are in alignment. You are allowing God to direct the outcome. I place the future in the hands of God. That's it! Did you hear it? Tell me you heard it? Everyone in the room heard it. You heard it. I place the future in the hands of God. All the way out. Yes. Until the end of time, I place the future...

"You mean God is determining the outcome?" Yes, of course – if I allow Him to. "Oh!, but that sounds like blind faith." No, seeing the world is what blind faith is. Faith in what? What is there to put your faith in here? You are deaf, dumb and blind – in this place. You are wandering around in darkness. Your faith is in darkness. Not anymore, not anymore.

Jesus teaches it this way. Having been offered and having received the Alternative, your faith is now beyond the body. Your faith is no longer associated with body identity. Your faith is now in something else. And that something else which you discover, is Love. The moment you get outside of body awareness you are Love. You are in love even within the containment of the body awareness but you don't know it because you're contained. You've shut Love out. But as you let Love in the first thing you see, as you release body awareness, is Love. Connection, communication, shared purpose. A shared thought, a shared idea.

We are sharing the idea of coming together and waking up. It's a shared idea, yes? We are in that idea – that is our vehicle, and we are using it in order to remember God, remember who we are. How does that occur? I trust my brothers who are one with me. I trust my brothers who are one with me. That's it. I trust my brothers who are one with me. That's it. I've learned, by Grace, to overlook appearances. I've learned. I have no faith in them. Did you hear that? I have no faith in the appearance. I trust my brothers who are one with me. I have no faith at all in the appearance. Did you understand? Did you hear me? My faith is in you. Not in the appearance of you. The appearance of you is an illusion.

Here's a good one: if I asked you to do something for me that involves the body identity – clear up the garden – I have no faith in your body ability to do that. My faith is in you. I look right at you and say "I know if I asked you, you will do it". I have faith in you. Do you understand? It's good to be heard. The same is true for all of you. I know you will do whatever you need to do because I have faith in you. I know you will fulfil this function. I know it. The outcome is certain. You will do what you came to do and you will leave.

All I'm here to tell you is you can't leave by dying – it's not going to happen that way. That's not the way the story ends. It ends in remembering. It ends in awakening and that's what we're demonstrating.

You realize "oh! shit the body's not so stable after all". Its fun! It's being translated, transformed. The body is being transformed. Of course. Part of the matrix is being adjusted. Finally the whole matrix is going to be contained within your body identity. The matrix is your cellular memory – I don't want it. I love you guys. I love you and we're going home together. This dream is over. We have found one another in Light and in Love and the ego will not prevail against it. The egos days are numbered. Good. Thank you.

We're back in Oneness University. Where's that? I have no idea. Oneness University, there it is. It's a frequency. It's demonstrating exactly what you're demonstrating. We're joined in purpose. That will be true of all traditions. All traditions ultimately join in one purpose – to remember who we are. Now you find everyone on the way out.

There's only one idea and its whole and perfect. Just because it enters into a condition of fragmentation doesn't mean it's not still whole and perfect. Nothing's changed. I'm just directing your attention to the wholeness and not toward the fragmentation. As you identify with wholeness, you will become whole. Absolutely.

Initially that feels like trust, trust. Trust the process. Trust God. Trust the Holy Spirit – that’s all you can do. But as you trust, the experience authenticates your trust. You trust and then you see that trust works. The experience verifies the Truth. And the Truth is that there is a different way of seeing – that’s the Truth. And that way is Love. That way is Light. That way is singular self-identity and it is outside the containment of your body identity.

You can call it the subtle body if you like. Come on, you’re aware of it. You know that there’s a field of energy extending from your apparent body idea – you can feel it. You are a vibrating field of energy. When your awareness is released from the body identity it expands. So now, you are in this field of energy that’s out here somewhere. The more you release it, the more universal you become, until you lose awareness of the body altogether. That’s called waking up. This is good teaching.

I’m bringing in all your Eastern ideas – your Buddha field. You’re not a body, you’re a Buddha. For the time being, you’ll be a Buddha. At least the Buddha is bigger than a body – that works. Maybe that’s the name of the new book. We are in the realm of ideas now and all ideas come from a single idea which is whole and perfect. And as its Sacred Geometry, it drops down against the fragments, but so what – you can see the wholeness in each of the fragments. It’s very evident. Now we are communicating. Now you know what I see. You see it in me. You see the wholeness in the fragment. You are a whole thought.

We are going to be leaving soon – have a Coke! It’s so close that it’s self-evident. And the expression is just for fun. I know that everyone here at this frequency is perfectly aware that there’s only one of us waking up. I love you. How you demonstrate that is between you and God. Whatever you do, you will be demonstrating that awakening. If anything, I’m just trying to speed up time for you. That’s all.

Your demonstrations ultimately are only reflections. God Himself, and therefore you, are prior to all of that. Did you hear that? You are before the teaching began and after it ends. The Alpha & the Omega. Listen to me carefully: you are that from which all things are arising. All things arise in you. Can you see that? Everything is arising in you. Can you see it? I am the Light of the world. I am the Light of this world.

It’s a little bit fearful to stand in Causation initially – there’s no question about it. Yes or no? In other words, it takes some practise. I’m the cause of this. I’m the Cause of this. Father. The immediate response to “I am the Cause of this” is “Father”. Did you hear that? You need to see that with clarity. Because what you’ve done needs correction. Yes or no? I’m talking about your world now – look at it. What you’ve done needs correction. Yes or no? OK! That’s what this is – this is the correction. What’s it going to look like? None of your business. None of your fucking business! What do you care?

When you stand in causation, when you recognise that you are responsible (I’m talking to myself now) the immediate, the immediate action, gesture becomes “Into your hands. Father, only you.” I don’t know. I have to trust because I don’t know. What I do know is I no longer want what I’ve made. Yes or no? It’s simple. You look and say “I don’t know what that is but I know I don’t want this”. A quantum leap, an increase in frequency – called Self, called Love. When you let go, Love is.

When you let go of yourself, Love is. And this is what our Zen garden is all about. I want everyone to go out there quietly, when you get the chance, and sit and practise letting love in and see what happens as an experiment. You'll be surprised. When you let Love in everything finds you where you are. Do you know why? Do you know why? Because you are what Love is. Did you hear that? You are that. You are what Love is.

This is today's lesson: I trust my brothers who are One with me. Everything will join you where you are because you are what everything is. Nice to be heard. That's El Portal del Cel. El Portal del Cel is either that or nothing. Did you hear that? If El Portal del Cel isn't that place where everything remembers Light, Love, then it isn't anything. Of course!

Just stay in the frequency now – and its pretty high. It requires some practise and determination. That's why you are here. You are here to help me sustain, to stabilise this transitional frequency: Love. Will you help me? Will you help me to love this world wholly? It's called forgiveness, healing.

You have a higher purpose here. Say to me, I'm here on His behalf. Yes you are. I'm just reminding you. You know why you're here. You're here on His behalf – I'm just reminding you. You know why you're here. You're here on His behalf – I'm just reminding you. Father, how can I serve? Only you. Align my dream so that I may complete the purpose given by You. Your Will. This is the Light which purifies. This is the Light which cleanses. Father. We are here in your name. Father we are One in purpose and the end of hell is here. Father. Father. Are you with me?

Say to me, "I need help". Father. Father. If you are lost, ask for help. Ask out loud – I want to hear it. Help is all around you now. That's all. That's what's been around you all along – your help. Father. Father. It is my will to awaken in you. Father. Father. Father. You need to be one-pointed now. Father. Father. Father. Into your hands.

Namasté.
