

The Inevitability of The Evolutionary Destiny Of The Human Specie

Intensive: Sunday May 18, 2008

Asking For help is a little bit like tuning your receiver to the frequency of salvation. It is important now to be gentle with yourself, and be tender with one another. Being tender with each other allows you to enhance the awareness of the Alternative or the resolution that is being offered now, the Grace. It sort of fine tuning your-self as a receiver. God is the giver and, in the transition, you are the receiver. That is: giving and receiving are the same.

As you receive there is an impulse to give, to offer, that is why you are here. You are here to give the answer that you've received. All what we have done here is stabilize that frequency, which allows you to receive the gift of Grace. And allows you, also, to extend it and to offer it. That frequency has been stabilized in you because of your exposure to this place, to this provision. If it hasn't yet been stabilized, just stick around. It will happen.

A couple of things that I want to offer you, and I want to keep it real simple and gentle, because the need for talking is almost over!

What is going on, or what you are beginning to get a sense of, is what Jesus calls: your capacity to join the thinking of the Universe. This is what your experience is now. You are beginning to enter into what we call a unifying awareness, the thinking of The Universe. You are coming out of a very small frame of association with yourself. You are opening up with your association with God which is the association with everything.

And how do you do that? Well, you open up your antenna. You ask for help! Your antenna may receive, by asking for help. The Old Man (Master Teacher) called it a satellite. You are like a satellite dish. And you point it towards the heavens, and you are receiving the information from everywhere in the Universe. Jesus sometimes refers to this as the store house of knowledge.

The important thing to realize now, is that it is happening in you. You are one with that way of thinking. The way the Universe thinks, the way God thinks. You are not other than what that is. The important thing to realize now, what I offer you is that you are here on behalf of that Evolutionary Agency. You are here on behalf of God and, simply by being here and opening to receive, you are providing a bridge. You are providing a space where others can access that frequency. In other words, you are part of God's plan for salvation, and you are a vital part of that. Your part is required.

So, what is going to happen? Well, you have heard all sorts of ideas about the prophecies being fulfilled. 2012 is an idea that comes to mind. This is the year when all of the prophecies are going to be fulfilled. Remember that 2012 is the culmination of an ongoing process that is going on ever since you said: "I need an Alternative". That is when the process began. It is going to complete in 2012, what you think is 2012, which you have projected out into the future. But the process is ongoing in you.

So what is going to happen in 2012? The Advent of a Great Awakening! The inevitability of the evolutionary destiny of the human specie! ;Come on! You are not a human being, you are a God being; 2012 is the year when the decision is made to accept that altogether, if you want to look at it in terms of the evolution of the species. But your part is required so that that event in conscience can unfold and be made available to all beings, to all that are ready to make this transition.

What is the requirement? The requirement is that you are open to receive the frequencies of transformation, the energies of transformation. When you find me, as you did right there, what you find is a confluence of energy, I am not a location, nor an individual being. I am an integral part of that confluence of energy. You are an integral part of that confluence of energy, you call it: The Holly Spirit.

It is nice to know that you are part of this event. You are not observing it. You are it! It is going to get easy because more and more you are going to become part of this confluence of energy, thereby making it easier for everyone else.

What is the critical factor? Love! Love is the critical factor. Unless you are loving, and acting from love, you will simply miss it; even though it is there, you would not find it, because you are denying it. It is very simple. Act from love. Let Love be the animator of whatever it is you do and you will be happy. In other words that's how you open the satellite dish. That is how you receive the signal;- by loving.

Even bigger than this, your body is a satellite dish. Your body is the parabola, and your body is the satellite! It is a new way of being. You are advanced human being! You may want to enjoy one another's company, shine a little bit on your brother.

I am just offering or stating what you already know. You are part of this project just as much as I am. You are here on behalf of God! The key words now; gentle, be tender and be loving. These are all keys. Be at peace.

I want to read just a couple of ideas from Jesus. These are the final lessons. Jesus is offering you the inevitability of salvation now, in these final lessons.

And it is going to be a very simple description of your being. You are not a human being.

Lesson 222 - God Is With Me. I Live and Move in Him.

"God is with me. He is my Source of life, the life within, the air I breathe, He is the food by which I am sustained, the water which renews, and cleanses me..."

God is all of these things. God is in every thing I see.

"...He is my Home, wherein I live and move. He is the Spirit which directs my actions, offers me its thoughts and guarantees my safety from all pain. He covers me with kindness and with care, and holds in love the Son He loves and shines upon, who also shines upon Him. How still is He who knows the truth of what He speaks today?

How still are you when you know the truth? That God is with you in all .

Father, we have no words except Your Name upon our lips and in our minds, as we come quietly into your presence now, and ask to rest with You in peace a while..." (Jesus, A Course in Miracles)

One final idea:

"What Is Salvation?"

"Salvation is a promise, made by God, that you would find your way home to Him at last. It cannot but be kept. It guarantees that time will have an end, and all the thoughts that have been born in time, will end as well. God's word is given, to every mind which thinks that it has separate thoughts, replacing these thoughts of conflict, with a thought of Peace.

The thought of Peace was given God's Son, the instant that his mind had thought of conflict. There was no need for such a thought before, for peace was given without opposite, and merely was. But when the mind is split, there is a need of healing..."

That is why you are here. When the mind is split, there is a need of healing.

"...So the thought that has the power to heal the split, became a thought of every fragment of the mind that still was unified, but failed to recognize its oneness. Now It seems to not know itself and thought its own identity was lost.

Salvation is undoing in the sense that it does nothing. All it does is fail to support the world of dreams and malice..."

That is it. And this is what you have become. All you have become here, in this transition is the unwillingness to support the dream of malice. Your attention is been freed. It is a faculty of awareness, which is being used by God. If you are attending to the world, you are animating it, because you are using this faculty of awareness, which is creative. Quantum physics says your attention is creative. If you attend something, you are creating it.

The observant is nothing other than the observed. So, now, you are being trained to free your attention by removing it from dreams of malice. In other words, not attending to it, but attending instead, to the happy dream that is being offered you in the transition. "I choose the Peace of God, instead of this".

You are removing your dream of suffering by saying; "God has a better idea". I am going to accept God's idea." It gets easier and easier! So easy that you don't know what to do. You are hearing it! A Course In Miracles!

Jesus is here with you! He is smiling, He is happy because He is being heard! He intended this message for you. ....

"...Thus the mind lets illusions go. By not supporting them, the mind, merely lets them go quietly to dust."

By not supporting illusions, this is important now! It is up to you. You get to be an active practitioner, an active savior of the world. "I am not going to support a dream of malice." "I am going to accept the solution instead". Do you see the action in all of this? You can be with me and allow the approach to be proactive, in other words, don't allow the suffering to arise. Just stay in the Grace.

That is what I would do. I won't let it even arise. That is my suggestion. Now for that you may have to turn away from the word entirely. If you remain active in the world, you may have to deal with the conversion or the healing associated with the confrontation. You will be confronted with the conflict of the world if you are living within it.

That is why you established this place. This place, this provision, is apart from the world. This is the vehicle of transition. It is above the word, and it is calling all those who are prepared. It is not in the world. It appears to be, but its roots are in Heaven. That is why you are here.

You will have to look at that individually. There is nothing I can do about that except offer you a continuous solution. I tell you, it is easier when you are among those who are in the same frequency of association. It is easier! It is more difficult when you have to deal with the conversion of your old ideas, which are vibrating at a low vibratory frequency. And if you are dealing with those ideas, you have to recognize them, as past ideas in your own mind, and then bring them into your frequency by not yielding into temptations of an old frame of reference. And that is not easy to do on your own which is why you isolate. Why do you isolate? Well, because you are drawn in, into an old idea. You don't have to do that anymore. This place is been given you, to stabilize your transitional identity.

"...by not supporting them, it merely lets illusions quietly go down to dust. And what they hid, is simply revealed; an altar to the Holy Name of God whereon His Word is written, with the gifts of your forgiveness laid before it, and the memory of God not far behind.

Let us come daily to this holy place, and spend a while together here. Here we shall share our final dream..."

Here, in this place, which is an Altar, by the way, this is a Temple. In the temple is the altar and in the altar is our relationship. We come together to this Holy Place in order to share our final dream.

Now let me offer this to you: this is a shared dream of salvation, so as we share it with one another, we will begin to open our awareness to all those who are also sharing the same dream. This is called: The Advent of the Great Awakening.

We are opening our minds, to include all those who are making this transition. "Oneness University", for example.

So this is what we are doing now. We are opening our minds to include all those who are making this transition; and we are joining with them. All we are concern about is this confluence of energy, this confluence of determination, to see things differently, to be given a brighter vision: to transition out of the littleness of the human identity and to see the reality of your identity, of the reality of God.

Why was I chosen? Because I am from Brooklyn! No, really, there is no real requirement except to be who you are. It is getting easier and we are getting happier, because truth is evident. It does not require a lot of study. I love you!

Here we go:

"...Here we share our final dream. It is a dream in which there is no sorrow, for it holds a hint of all the glory given us by God. The grass is pushing through the soil, the trees are budding now, and birds have come to live within the branches..."

Did you hear the birds this morning? Aren't they incredible here? I opened the window this morning at 6 o'clock because it was like a symphony. They were incredible! All the different sounds, but they worked together beautifully! They were baritones and tenors, and they were all sorts of instruments, and they were really beautiful! Every bird that sings, sings for you.

"...Earth is being born again in a new perspective. The night has gone, and we have come together in the light.

From here, we give salvation to all the world, for it is here that salvation was received. The song of our rejoicing is the call to all the world that freedom is returned, that time is almost over, and God's Son has but an instant more to wait until his Father is remembered, dreams are done, eternity has shined away the world, and only Heaven exists at all."

I love you!

Happy Easter! Namaste... thank you.
